Planning for the unknown
Operating from the EEA into the UK?

CLYDE&CO

No

- Decide how to run off the existing business
- Plan to close down UK operations
- Consider sale of renewal rights to third party
- Consider transfer of UK portfolio to third party

These rights have value, so the clock is ticking. Decisions and actions are needed as the renewal date approaches

Review the scale of that business to determine whether we should continue to write our UK business, and if so, how

Yes

- Establish a UK branch
- Establish a UK subsidiary
- Find UK insurer to front the business
- Acquire a UK insurer

There may be increased competition for attractive targets, in order for transactions to be completed before the UK withdraws from the EU
